

Color a Blacksmith!

John Smith wrote that the colonists had "iron which we made into little chisels." Blacksmithing was one of the earliest trades at Jamestown. Archaeologists found a blacksmith shop just inside of the the fort palisade. Today, blacksmiths at Jamestown continue to use traditional methods to make tools, armor pieces, and other objects.

Once you have finished coloring your blacksmith have an adult show you what he looks like in real life by visiting: <https://historicjamestowne.org/jr-kids-at-home> #colorourcollections #JRKids
