

Color a Cooper!

Coopering – the making of wooden storage containers – has existed for over 3,000 years. At Jamestown, casks were to transport cargos of wine, beer, tobacco, sugar, and salt. Today, historic tradesmen show visitors traditional ways to make buckets, barrels, and casks.

Once you have finished coloring your cooper have an adult show you what he looks like in real life by visiting: <https://historicjamestowne.org/jr-kids-at-home> #colorourcollections #JRKids
